

I urge the FCC to keep the ban on cell phone use during flight for all the safety reasons which have been described to you by my union CWA-AFA. Cell phones are already a nuisance and by allowing use in flight security and order will be greatly compromised. It will turn flight attendants into the cell phone police amongst the other duties we have had thrust upon us since the terrorist attacks of 9/11.